

About Scott County's Lobby

As Big and Effective as any of Its Size on Earth.
--It Sucks Eggs and Hides the Shells Too.

Citizens of Scott county, you are familiar with the conditions in St. Louis. The fact that the municipal government there is rotten has been so clearly proven that neither of the great parties dare defend it, and since the one party is as deep in the mud as the other is in the mire, it has not been made a political issue. It is true that in the backwoods districts the Democrats try to claim credit because the man who is so vigorously prosecuting the accountants was elected on the Democratic ticket. This only proves that, in elections, politicians sometimes make a mistake. Ed. Butler, the boss boodler, gave to St. Louis its present efficient and honorable prosecuting attorney.

Butler made a mistake. Is the Democratic "party" entitled to any credit for that? If Butler had known anything about the character of Mr. Folk, then Mr. Folk would not now hold the position he does.

But mark these words: MR. FOLK WILL NEVER RECEIVE ANOTHER INDOREMENT FOR ANY OFFICE SO LONG AS THE PRESENT GANG RULES IN MISSOURI.

Ed. Butler is as good a man as many others who meddle in politics and pretend to be Democrats. The only difference is that he is a little more open and bold about. He is no hypocrite.

What has Ed. Butler done that is so outrageously outrageous? What has Ed. Butler done that any other politician will not do?

"He is charged with boodling and bribing the people's representatives," you say?

Very well. Let it go at that. It is a serious charge.

Now let us stop down into Scott county. Are not the members of the county court the people's representatives? Are they not selected to conduct the affairs of the county to the best interests of the tax payers?

Last Tuesday prosecuting Attorney Kelly made the statement to me that during the Republican administration in Missouri the railroads were sold to one set of bidders for less money than another set of bidders had offered, and he seemed to consider it an unpardonable outrage.

"Did not exactly the same thing happen right here in your court house last week?" asked the editor.

Mr. Kelly made no reply. His lips were sealed on that question. It is no more dishonest or disgraceful to ignore the highest bidder in the sale of public property than it is to ignore the lowest bidder in the letting of public work. Public printing is public work, and it is as much the duty of public servants to have such work done at the lowest rate obtainable as it is to have road work, bridge work and other work done at the lowest rate.

I am told that similar favoritism is often shown in the letting of other work, and I know that the county records show that certain men appear most monotonously often on the appropriation lists for the building of roads and bridges in the various districts of the county. On election day you will find these men at the polls urging you to vote straight.

The affairs of your county are not conducted in the open as they should be. Quite all important matters are disposed of just as the printing of the ballots was disposed of. The details are fixed up in some adjacent office, or at the saloon, and about all that happens on the bench is the order of record.

It is only just to say that the Presiding Judge is not taken into the confidence of the lobby and that he does not do his part of the county's business behind closed doors. Perhaps it would be unjust to severely criticize Judges Batts and Welch for they are farmers, not familiar with the methods of practical politicians, and listen to men whom they believe to be their friends, but who, in reality, are not their friends.

Your county court is, in a measure, your county legislature. It transacts your business and appropriates your money. An indifferent or corrupt act on their part is no more excusable than a similar act of the St. Louis municipal assembly or of your state legislature.

And a lobby at your county seat is no less reprehensible than a lobby at St. Louis or at Jefferson City. And we have the lobby here—a full grown lobby with boots on—all wool and a yard wide. It differs from the St. Louis and Jefferson City lobbies in that it depends more on the bottle than on the bribe. But its work is just as smooth, as sly and as successful as the work of any lobby.

This lobby does not confine its workings exclusively to your county court, but invades every branch of

The Speakers Didn't Draw.

Colored posters announced that Congressman Vandiver, Hon. J. J. Russell and Hon. Robert Rutledge would speak at the court house Monday afternoon last.

Circuit court was in session and there were not as many people in town as is usual on the first day of court. It is evident that the speakers did not draw a single man.

Mr. Russell opened up and abused the Republicans unmercifully. That was all there was to his speech—except a few deceptive statements taken from Sam Cook's campaign book. He told about the amount of money the state had appropriated to the Scott county schools this year, but forgot to tell that the tax collector took this money from the people last year. He told about "Missouri's low tax rate," but forgot to tell that we were being taxed to the limit permitted by the constitution, and that our assessed valuation was increasing at the rate of $500,000 annually. And so on.

Mr. Vandiver was a little more moderate and talked mainly on national issues. Neither of the speakers threw any light on the identity of "Brown." They did not tell their hearers about the State House Ring selling legislation in exchange for campaign boodle.

Both speakers seemed very much alarmed at the situation. They said that the greatest danger was that Democrats would not turn out.

Less than one hundred and fifty voters were present, and before the speaking closed the crowd dwindled to about seventy-five.

In the evening Mr. Russell and Representative Williams spoke at the big mill.

From Commerce.

Several business changes have occurred since our last. J. B. Struble, field sold his general store to A. N. Ireland; J. B. Torbert sold his grocery business to Sam Clymer, and J. B. Finley sold to an Illinois man.

We have not yet heard who is to be queen of the World's Fair here next week. You all want to come and see her, don't you?

W. B. Anderson's farmers on Big Island have in about 1,200 acres of wheat, of which Wm. Stone has 800. 2,500 acres makes a pretty field, but it would raise more support if every 80 acres was a farm to itself.

Be It Resolved: That our city dads should keep our wind-mill greased and stop the squeak.

That a franchise loses its force when the grantee refuses to operate according to the sense of the grant. That the artesian bore should be submitted to the taxpayers to see if he needs the quaff or not.

That there is no other combine that has a take-off that stands as 90 to 450—not even the Morgan ship subsidy. Send your county court, your lobby and your public printer down here next week and we'll give 'em the blue ribbon.

That every citizen who has a conscience void of offense toward his fellow man should support the KICKER, and they who find themselves inclined to selfishness and dishonesty should subscribe for it. If it don't convert you to honesty it will be a great help to you in your plea with St. Peter.

That more people around Benton should train to the liquor habit so it wouldn't be so hard on those who have it.

That Prosecuting Attorney Folk of St. Louis should be put on all political tickets next time for governor of Missouri.

Anger in His Blows.

Wife (to her husband)—"Arthur, love, I want you to give John a good scolding tomorrow morning."

Husband—"What for? I am perfectly satisfied with the fellow."

Wife—"Well, you see, he has to beat the carpets tomorrow and he strikes ever so much harder when he's in a bad temper."—Pearson's Weekly.

Actor—"I have a war as well as a histrionic record. I was nearly killed once by the bursting of a shell."

"Manager"—"Who threw the egg?"—Baltimore World.
